General Guidelines

KOTESOL Proceedings 2019

KOTESOL Proceedings 2019 submissions should:

1. Be more than just handouts or a lecture outlines and be written so that the content is accessible to a broad readership. If an extended summary was submitted to the Conference Program Guide, the proceedings submission should, at the very least, be an expansion and revision of what appeared there.

2. Be consistent with the guidelines of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA), 7th ed., especially for in-text citations and reference lists. The following link provides a good introduction to the basics of the APA style:

   http://www.apastyle.org/

   (For the tutorial “The Basics of APA Style,” click on: http://www.apastyle.org/learn/tutorials/basics-tutorial.aspx)

   Note: If APA style is not followed, your submission may not be considered for inclusion in Proceedings 2019.

3. Be limited to no more than 4,000 words for research papers (2,000 for panel-discussions and workshop reports).

4. Be limited to a title of 10 words.

5. Have an abstract of 150 words or less at the beginning of the article.

6. Follow the general format of:

   - Title
   - Name, Affiliation, Location
   - Abstract [required]
   - Main Body of Paper [including Introduction; and if it is a research report, including Method, Results, Discussion, and Conclusions sections]
   - The Author(s) [biodata (Required)]
   - References [if any]
   - Selected Resources / Select Readings / Etc. [if any (not encouraged)]
   - Appendix / Appendices [if any]
   - Notes (Endnotes) [not encouraged. No bottom-of-page footnotes. No automatic footnote formatting]

   For reference, look at Proceedings 2016 articles at:
   https://koreatesol.org/content/kotesol-proceedings-2016

   See suggested formatting guidelines on pages 3–4 (below).

7. Be accompanied by a biographical statement of up to 100 words just before the reference list section for each author (Beginning with author name, written in the third person, and including author email address), plus any special, brief acknowledgements or notations the author/s wish to include.
8. Be submitted by email attachment to 2019proceedings@gmail.com and include all file graphics as separate attachments as well as incorporated into the manuscript.

9. Be accompanied by an email message that includes contact information: alternate email address(es), telephone numbers.

10. Not have been previously published nor be under consideration for publication elsewhere.

11. Be in a Microsoft Word file format (.doc or .docx), with accompanying attachments of all graphical items in supported file formats. Figure captions should not be part of the graphic.

12. Be accompanied by a signed Copyrights Agreement form, scanned and submitted as an email attachment.

13. Be submitted no later than January 30, 2020.

We strongly recommend you do not exceed 10 pages (for research papers: 4,000 words, less tables or figures). If word-count restrictions (2,500 – 4,000) are problematic, consult the editors at the email address above.

Additional Do’s and Don’ts

- Do not underline titles, etc.
- Do not hyphenate to divide words at the end of lines.
- Do not insert more than a single character-space between words and sentences.
- Do not use automated functions for (a) citations/references, (b) footnotes or endnotes, or for (c) editing/tracking.
- Be sure that your in-text citations and reference list references correspond (i.e., each citation must be in the reference list, and each reference must be cited in the text).
- Be sure that all references are complete in content (author, date, title of work, title of book/journal, page numbers, publisher location, publisher, etc.).
- Write in a scholarly research paper style with text that is fluent, grammatical, and correctly punctuated and spelled (using APA spelling standards and using the Oxford comma – serial comma – consistently).

Note. Non-compliance with any one of the three “do’s” immediately above could result in the non-acceptance of your submitted manuscript.

Disclaimer

KOTESOL retains the right to edit submissions to enhance spelling, grammar, clarity, and style. The editors also reserve the right to edit submissions for length, style, and clarity, without prior notification to authors. Material published in the Proceedings should not be construed to have the endorsement of Korea TESOL or its officers. Submissions in disagreement with these guidelines may not be accepted for publication.
Supported File Formats

Text files: Microsoft Word 2015, or later versions, are preferred. Please do not send files as Hangul (hwp).

Graphics: All graphics should be both inserted in the appropriate place within the text file and submitted as separate graphic files. The preferred formats for graphics are JPEG / JPG for continuous tone images and for mono- or duo-tone images. Inclusion of non-table, non-graph artwork is not guaranteed. Due to size limitations, some artwork may not be published.

Note that:

- All vertical lines are invisible.
- All horizontal table lines are invisible except those above and below column headings, and the one at the bottom of the body of the table. (Additional horizontal lines may be necessary to separate sections of text-heavy tables.)
- The line below the table heading in double-lined, ½ pt.
- The line below the column headings is single-lined, ½ pt.
- The line at the bottom of the table is single-lined, 1½ pt.
- The table heading at the top and the note at the bottom are part of the table, with outermost lines being invisible.
Sample Figure

Note that:
- Figures have captions, not headings.
- Everything that is not a table is labeled “Figure.” Nothing is labeled “Chart,” “Diagram,” “Illustration,” “Graphic,” etc.
- Figure number and accompanying description/explanation should not be part of the graphic but rather appear under the graphic (as above).

Copyrights Agreement

KOTESOL Proceedings 2019

The AUTHOR, by submitting their material(s) to Korea TESOL (KOTESOL) for publication considerations in KOTESOL Proceedings, hereby releases all copyright ownerships and permissions to KOTESOL, contingent upon publication by KOTESOL within one (1) year of receipt. The AUTHOR is individually and personally responsible for obtaining permissions in cases of prior publication in whole or part for any copyright infringements within the materials. Such permissions should be in written form, and included in the original submission. Absence of such permissions in no way relieves or reduces the sole liability of the AUTHOR, should copyright issues arise.

KOTESOL will advise the AUTHOR of submitted materials within three (3) months following submission deadline of intent to publish and form of the publication. Prior to notice of intent to publish, the AUTHOR has the right to withdraw their submission.

After publication by KOTESOL, KOTESOL agrees to grant reprint rights to all requesters, subject to concurrent approval by the AUTHOR. Nevertheless, the AUTHOR shall make pro forma requests to KOTESOL for copyright release prior to reprinting the material(s) in any form. KOTESOL shall also make such pro forma request to the AUTHOR for copyright release prior to reprinting the materials. Any reprint of the material(s) shall bear the phrase “reprinted with permission from KOTESOL Proceedings 2019” or other similarly worded phrase.

KOTESOL’s right of publication shall extend from the initial paper production (if any) to maintenance of the materials in an electronic media “library” such as an internet-based “web page” (if any), to production of permanent electronic media such as CD-ROM, so long as the material(s) are maintained in a collection of material(s) similarly first-published.
