

KAIST seeks instructors for a 3-week English Camp in January 2027

The EFL Program in the School of Digital Humanities and Computational Social Sciences at KAIST is looking for camp instructors with excellent teaching and educational backgrounds. Instructors will be teaching academic English skills to high school students who have been admitted to KAIST.

Number of openings: 10 instructors

Requirements: Applicants must have an E1/F type visa, not an E2 visa.

Master's degree preferred in TESOL, Applied Linguistics, or Linguistics; high fluency in English.

Job description:

All classes and meetings will be in-person at KAIST (Daejeon Main Campus).

*There will be an orientation prior to the start of the camp via Zoom.

-teach from 9:15 AM to 8:55 PM, Monday through Friday (1 hour and 30-minute break for lunch and dinner)

-attend meetings and special activities as required

-evaluate students and submit final grades

-assist in developing materials as necessary

Period: Jan. 11(Monday) to Jan. 27 (Wednesday)

*The closing ceremony will be via Zoom on January 29.

Note: classes are generally from 9:15 AM to 8:55 PM. There are some special activities scheduled throughout the camp that are not included in the teaching hours, such as Sports Day with TAs, special lectures, etc.

Payment: 42,000 won per hour is paid for teaching (excluding lunch and dinner breaks), meetings, and special activities (opening and closing ceremony, etc.).

The final payment is approximately 4.0 million won.

Housing: single/shared dormitory provided

Application deadline: Friday, November 20, 2026

How to apply:

The subject of the email should be 2027 Academic Winter Camp. Send a resume, two letters of recommendation, a cover letter, a copy of your passport, and transcripts to the email address below.

-Email address: efl@kaist.ac.kr

After reviewing the submitted documents, only shortlisted applicants will be contacted to arrange an online interview via Zoom.

If you have any inquiries, please contact the EFL office (Ms. Gaeun Baek) at efl@kaist.ac.kr /042-350-4650