Introduction

For the April chapter workshop for KOTESOL's Seoul Chapter, we will be hosting an "Un-Conference". Following up from our very successful Chapter Conference hosted at Hanyang University on March 25th, the April workshop will be flipping the concept of workshops and conferences by hosting an "Un-Conference".

For example: Susan is a teacher at a middle school, who wants to find out more about motivating middle school age students. She comes to the un-conference and writes on the discussion board for a table her topic. Other like-minded participants who are interested in the topic come and join her at the table and they discuss her subject. They share stories, personal experiences, advice and questions. As the discussion comes to an end, the participants move on to join other groups or start their own discussion.

questions they wish to discuss to the session. This is a very interactive, participant led session. There will be several spaces where participants can introduce ideas they wish to discuss in small groups or raise a problem they would like help with. Alternatively participants can join other discussions that interest them.
